

DUNFERMLINE ATHLETIC FOOTBALL CLUB (“DAFC”)

DATA PROTECTION CONSENT

We collect information about you when you purchase a season ticket, match ticket, an item from our shop or attend a hospitality event. This information will normally only relate to your personal details, such as your name, postal address, email address, phone number and your date of birth. We will only gather and process personal data if we have a proper reason for doing so, in a manner that is lawful, fair and transparent. Your personal information is very important to us and we will endeavour to take all due care to protect it. We may sometimes need to pass your personal information to other organisations. We may also engage the services of third party providers to enhance the service we provide to you. These parties may need to process your personal data in the performance of their contract with us. The organisations to whom we may pass your details also have their own obligations to deal with your personal information appropriately.

We publish a Privacy Notice, which gives more information about the nature of our personal data processing activities and includes details of our retention and deletion policies as well as your rights of access to the personal information that we hold on you.
